THE REVIEW

BY JACK & MIZE.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has about finished his message.

The inhabitants of Sofia are fairly wild over their recent victories.

The following results of the parliamentary elections were received at London, yesterday afternoon: Right Hon. David R. Plunkett, first commissioner of works under the conservative cabinet, and Mr. Holmes, attorney general for Ireland, also under the conservative cabinet, have been elected from the Dublin university division. Thos. Burt, labor candidate, is elected for Morpeth. Right Hon. George Otto Trevelyan, chief secretary for Ireland under Mr. Gladstone's administration, is elected for Galashiels. Col. T. A. Slamey, colonial secretary in the conservative cabinet, is elected for Blackpool. Right Hon. Henry Campbell-Bannerman, chief secretary for Ireland under Mr. Gladstone's administration, is elected for Sterling Group, Stirlingshire, Scotland, and Mr. Justin McCarthy for Nowry.

THE ROPE BROKE.

An Accident which Necessitated the Amputation of a Lady's Foot.

A very serious accident occurred at Robert Faries' check rower works last evening, which leaves Mrs. W. E. Surface a cripple for life. In company with a young lady friend from Urbana, who was visiting her, Mrs. Surface went to the factory where her husband is employed, at about dusk. Before starting home, she, the young lady accompanying her and a young man got on the elevator platform to go from the lower floor to one ten feet above. Mrs. Surface held a little child. Just as they reached the floor desired, the rope broke, and under the combined weight of the party, the platform descended at terrific speed. No one was injured but Mrs. Surface. Her right foot was caught under the platform and terribly crushed. The ankle joint was literally ground to pieces small pieces of bone forcing through the flesh. Mr. Surface, with the aid of friends, assisted his wife to their home at the corner of East Herkimer and North Clayton streets. Several physicians were soon called and it was decided that the foot would have to be amputated immediately above the ankle joint. The painful operation was performed by Dr. W. J. Chenoweth, Dr. E. W. Moore and Dr. A. D. Bridgeman. They finished about seven o'clock and left their patient resting as comfortably as could be expected under the circumstances.

Mrs. Surface is a young woman and has only been married a little more than a year. She has but one child. Her many friends will sincerely regret the unfortunate accident and more than all that the victim must suffer the loss of a foot. Just before the accident occurred five hundred pounds of check rower wire were hoisted on the elevator and it was all right.

Coal in Illinois.

Col. John S. Lord, secretary of the state bureau of labor statistics, has just completed and issued a supplementary report of the fourth statistical coal mining industry. It is inexhaustible, and contains many valuable facts of more than ordinary interest. There are forty-nine counties in the state producing coal from mines and openings of all kinds to the number of seven hundred and eighty-six. These are worked by 25,146 employees, and in the year ending July 1, 1885, produced 9,791,874 tons of coal at an aggregate value of $11,456,493 at the mines. Thirty-nine men were killed and one hundred and seventy-six injured so as to lose time. The noticeable feature is the fact that 128 out of the 215 accidents, 64 percent of them, was occasioned by the falling of overhanging coal or rock, or the so-called roof of the coal. Accidents of this class are more frequent and fatal than any other in this field and elsewhere, and they arise from a lack of correct judgment on the part of a miner as to when a roof is safe and when it is not. An unusual mortality is observed, however, from falling down shafts, there being seven of these tragic occurrences reported for the year, the details of which will occur in their place in the inspectors' report. In addition to these, three have been killed by timbering, two by cages, two by pit cars, two by gas, one by boiler explosion, and by powder blast.

Officers of the Relief Committee.

The officers of the Decatur Relief Committee, under whose auspices the charity ball is to be given on Thanksgiving night, are as follows: President, Mrs. L. Burrows. Vice-President, Mrs. W. B. Chambers. Secretary, Mrs. H. C. Johns. Treasurer, Mrs. Wm. M. Boyd. Directors—Mrs. C. P. Thatcher, Mrs. C. L. Griswold, Mrs. W. J. Quinlan, Mrs. J. K. Warren, Mrs. J. H. Vennigerholz, Mrs. D. C. Shockey.

Reception Committee.

Mrs. W. R. Abbott, Mrs. J. W. Kace, Mrs. Albert Barnes, Mrs. J. H. Vennigerholz, Mrs. A. C. Waterhouse and Mrs. O. E. Curtis.

Destroy That Sign.

One may feel that he's getting old, but he naturally declines to believe that he is. He says that he is not as old as he appears to be. He says that he is not as old as he appears to be. He says that he is not as old as he appears to be.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Lillie Condit returned yesterday afternoon to St. Louis.
—B. G. Bills, of Dakota, visited his brother, Dr. Bills, yesterday.
—Frank Black will attend a masquerade ball at Shelbyville, this evening.
—Mrs. Rev. George Vosburgh was taken suddenly ill yesterday afternoon.
—J. C. Moore, representing the Sullivan News, was in the city yesterday.
—Miss Kittie Gallagher, of Toledo, is in the city visiting her sister, Miss Maggie.
—W. C. Wood, a carriage manufacturer of Ft. Wayne, was in the city yesterday.
—R. C. Rawling and lady, of Blue Mound, were in the city yesterday, guests at the New Deming.
—J. R. Murray, the traveling representative of the Butler paper company, of Chicago, is in the city.
—Charlie Davis, business manager of the Tribune, at Junction City, Kansas, returned home yesterday afternoon.
—A. F. Smith went to Hoopston, Indiana, yesterday to make temperance speeches, and try and brace up the Hoosiers.
—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fenton and daughter, Miss Jessie, will leave on Monday for Florida, where they will spend the winter.
—Attorney I. D. Walker returned from Philo smilingly yesterday afternoon, having been successful in a law suit in which he engaged.
—Rev. A. C. Scott, pastor of the United Brethren church, leaves today for his old home at Lexington, to perform a wedding ceremony.
—James Stacey, formerly a postal clerk running into Decatur, but now in the grocery business at Peoria, was in the city yesterday for a short time.
—R. E. Layton, the genial and popular manager of the clothing house of Mr. M. Grady, at Maroa, was in the city last evening, on business. He made The Review a most pleasant call.
—P. G. Stout, manager of the Chicago Polo club, is in the city. He is making arrangements for the appearance of his team here. They will be here next month.
—Mrs. S. M. Ouster, sister of Mrs. Wm. Dodson, who was called here by the death of her mother, Mrs. White, a few days ago, returned home yesterday afternoon.
—Ed Gates, a member of the paid fire department, met with a serious accident on Saturday. He made a run out of the engine house door, and tripping fell heavily to the ground, which resulted in a sprained ankle and knee. Ed is now going around on crutches, but will soon be all right and ready for duty.
—Elder Newcomer returned yesterday from Shambaugh, Page county, Iowa, where he dedicated a new church on Sunday. It is a neat brick building, with stained glass windows well furnished. It cost about $2,500. The balance due on Sunday morning was $1,000. Elder Newcomer presented the claims of the church so forcibly that $1,116 were raised at one sitting.

Argentina.

—Mr. Drake has returned from Chicago with a car load of stock cattle in place of those he shipped there last week.
—Mr. Vulgamott sold a steer twenty-five months old, which weighed 1,460 pounds. How is that for a two-year-old calf?
—In the monthly examination at the Central last Friday, Miss Rosa Elkins, Lizzie Vulgamott, Laura Smith and Mollie Vulgamott, made 100 per cent in arithmetic. Mollie Vulgamott 100 in geography. Laura Smith, Nettie Drake, Clarence Lavy, and Nora Havelly have attended school every day.

Donavie's Original Tennesseans.

The above troupe of well-known colored singers, whose fame has been widespread for years, appeared at the opera house last evening. There was a large audience present, and the music gave general satisfaction. The programme consisted mainly of jubilee songs and old plantation melodies. There were a number of good voices in the company, and the songs were pleasingly rendered. The Hyers sisters, who formerly traveled with a company of their own, and who lately appeared here in "The Blackville Twins," are members of the troupe. The audience was very appreciative, judging from the liberal applause with which each selection was received.

"Frisco Line."

Now open to Winfield, Kansas. The Frisco Line and Kansas City & Southwestern railroad now forms the new direct through short line between St. Louis, Missouri, and Winfield, Kansas, via Beaumont. Through cars are now run without change between St. Louis and Winfield via the Frisco line. Don't fail to travel by the new line via Beaumont and secure quick time, low rates and no change of cars. Remember these facts and in buying your tickets see that they read via St. Louis and San Francisco railway.

Chicago.

You are welcome to the benefit. L. L. Ferriss & Co. offer their whole sale and retail stock now, at prime cost. Boots and shoes cheaper than ever sold before in Decatur. They move to Chicago soon. n18dwtf

DIED.

Mrs. Mary Wright died yesterday morning at one o'clock at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Stafford, on South Water street, of dropsy. Mrs. Wright came here several months ago from Seranton, Iowa, and has since been in failing health. She was fifty-four years old, and a most estimable lady, whose death will be sincerely regretted by all who have become acquainted with her. The funeral will take place this morning at ten o'clock, from No. 325 South Water street, Rev. Sophie Gibb, pastor of the Universalist church, will conduct the services, and the friends of the family are invited to attend.

Cerro Gordo.

—Union Thanksgiving services at the M. E. church at 11 a. m.
—Jacob Leslie, of Dayton, Ohio, is visiting at Mr. Andrew Leslie's.
—Mr. E. E. Edwards made his Decatur relatives a visit last Saturday.
—E. T. Lee is meeting with good success selling Miss Rose Cleveland's book.
—Miss Fannie Howell, of Oakley, is attending school at Cerro Gordo where the higher grades are taught.
—The G. A. R. campfire was a success, and was largely attended by the old veterans of Cerro Gordo, Monticello and Argenta.
—We have stone pavements and many other improvements, which add to the beauty and wealth of our city. Occupying a natural high position by location we aspire to occupy the same in a moral sense.
—Mr. Henry Howell and wife have returned from their western trip, where he went to improve the health of his wife. She is quite poorly and little hopes of recovery are entertained. The two older boys remained in the west.
—Corn husking is the order of the day.
—Miss Minnie Seburger did shopping in the city yesterday.
—It is reported that we are to have a double wedding in the near future.
—Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hockaday, of Orem, spent an evening in our village this week.
—Miss Kate Quicke, who lives east of Decatur, has been spending the past week with her cousin, Lizzie Landis.
—Mr. E. Wellepp, of St. John, Kansas, is again among us. He is accompanied by his brother, Will. The latter will probably remain here during the winter.
—Mr. and Mrs. Eli Reeser, who have been visiting their many relatives and friends in this vicinity for the past month, left on yesterday for their home in York, Pennsylvania. They were favorably impressed with our state; therefore we may expect to have them visit us again.

The Warrensburg cantata, entitled "Jephthah and his Daughter," was well rendered at this place Monday evening. The choruses were especially noteworthy. The soprano voices were equally good; that is, we could not notice a leading voice; but there was one very sweet alto voice, and their time was very marked. Indeed this was a very noticeable feature during the evening. The tableaux were excellent. Those having parts must have had much practice, and the band boys acquitted themselves very nicely indeed. We were surprised to know that they had arrived to such a high point of perfection. We hope to see them again among us. Those wishing to become familiar with the story of "Jephthah and his daughter" can do so by reading Judges, 11th chapter. We almost forgot to mention the fact that they had a full house. Even the gallery was crowded.

It Serves Everybody that Way.

"Ah!" he ejaculated, as he staggered in the store and snuk down in a chair in a fit of exhaustion.
"What's the matter?" asked a friend.
"I—I'm tired to death! My right arm feels like it was broken."
"Good gracious, my friend! What have you been doing to exhaust you in this manner?"
"Been winding my Waterbury watch," replied the exhausted man, feebly.—[Newman Independent.

—Fun at the rink to-night. Apple races. A barrel of apples to the winner. Don't miss it. It —Governor Oglesby has appointed Dr. N. H. Paaren, to be his own successor as state veterinarian.
—A man at Danville will bore for natural gas. This does not signify that Phocion Howard will be tapped.
—The Decatur Central Business College closes to-day at noon until Monday morning, for Thanksgiving.
—The up-town police locked up a plain drunk last evening. Business in their line was very quiet yesterday.
—It is not likely that there will be any protracted revival meetings at the First Methodist church this winter.
—If you want a chain pump, a real good one, go to Spencer & Leman and buy. They can just suit you. n25dwt —Supreme Judge Scott will be asked at Bloomington to-day to grant a supersedeas in the case of Alexander Conn.
—A new time table will very likely go into effect on the P. D. & E. on next Sunday. Only a few slight changes will be made.
—There was another good attendance at the rink last evening. The entertainment afforded by Queen's novelties was pleasing to all.
—Secure your tickets for "Niagara" on Friday evening. Rose Eyttinge, the well known and accomplished actress assumes the title role.
—Don't fail to get your dinner at the tab. Thanksgiving. The oysters will be the best to be had, furnished by Lehman & Bolen. n25dwt —Five boys escaped from the reform school at Pontiac the other day.
They threw pepper in the eyes of the guard. One of them was re-captured.
—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Phillip Lehman, of Sandowal, and Miss Hattie Law, of Wheel-land, and to W. C. Jones and Miss Nettie M. Millikin, of Natick.
—Call to-day at Lehman & Bolen's and get your Thanksgiving turkey. They are dressing, and have a good variety to select from. Call early and get your choice. n25dwt —The Decatur hunters at Peach Orchards, Arkansas, consisting of Dr. Cass Chenoweth, John May, Will Henry, Frank Haines and Silas Packard, are expected home to-morrow evening.
—The friends of Rev. and Mrs.
Bradshaw will give them a donation Thursday evening. Rev. Bradshaw is an aged minister, and a deserving one. Those charitably inclined should not forget Thanksgiving evening.
—The rope used in hoisting coal at the Niantic mine broke yesterday, and will delay operations for a few days. Luckily the accident happened while no one was in the cage, or a dire calamity might have been the result.
—The only thing in the way of theatrical entertainment at the opera house this week, will be on Friday evening, when Rose Eyttinge, will appear as "Niagara, the adventures." Don't fail to see this talented actress.
—Nothing has yet been done in the way of work on the electric light system. Our people are anxiously awaiting its introduction. Maybe when the Jenney company finish at Pekin, which will be about to-morrow, they will send their workmen here.
—We take pleasure in recommending Hall's Hair Renewer to our readers. It restores gray hair to their youthful color, prevents baldness, makes the hair soft and glossy, does not stain the skin, and is altogether the best known remedy for all hair and scalp diseases. n25dwt —The ladies of the Baptist church gave a sociable last evening, at the residence of Mrs. Frank Hays, on East Eldorado street. There was a good attendance, and all present enjoyed a splendid time. There were several beautiful tableaux, and during the evening the ladies served choice refreshments.

—The firm of Seeberger, Breakey & Co., wholesale hardware merchants of Chicago, has been dissolved. Mr.
Breakey, retiring. It will hereafter be known as Seeberger & Co. This is the firm for which Jim Simeral travels, and he will remain on the road drumming up a big trade for his employers.
—The prediction of a mild, open winter may not hold good. The same forecast was made last year, clear up until the weather set in at thirty degrees below zero, and choked the river off. It will be remembered as one of the coldest winters on record. This winter may prove a repetition of that of last.
—John H. McGinniss, general manager of all the belt railways controlled by the Wiggins Ferry company, met a sudden and frightful death at East St. Louis yesterday.
He attempted to board a freight car, but missing his hold, fell with his neck across the track, and several cars passed over it, producing instant death.
—Ayer's Sarsaparilla thoroughly cleanses the blood, stimulates the vital functions, and restores the health and strength. No one whose blood is impure can feel well. There is a weary languid feeling, and often a sense of discouragement and despondency. Persons having this feeling should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify and vitalize the blood.

—Boyd Shannon, "the keen eared hunter," with his dog and gun, calculates that he is the best shot in America. Out of thirteen wing shots yesterday he secured eleven birds.
His dog is an imported English fox hound, measuring twenty-two inches across the ears. His owner is very proud of him.
—S. M. Miller, formerly general passenger and ticket agent of the P.
D. & E., is now eastern passenger agent for the Illinois Central. His headquarters are at Buffalo. Mr.
Miller is a thorough railroad man, and during his connection with the P. D. & E., he made many friends along the line of the road, who will always rejoice to hear of his success.
—A stranger alighted from the train at the depot yesterday afternoon, and glancing up at the grimy old Union depot, a smile of recognition spread over his placid features, and he softly murmured, "Why, that is the same depot they had here fourteen years ago." "That's nothing," remarked a bystander, "if you live and come back here again in twice fourteen years, this same depot will very likely greet you."
—Yesterday afternoon David Web-ble, the demented machinist, was taken to Pittsfield by his brother Frank, who came here on Monday evening to take care of him. Yesterday the unfortunate man dined with his brother at the St. Nicholas, but was afraid to eat anything unless his brother first tasted it. He seemed to think some one was going to poison him. Webble had the appearance of being nervous, and as if very ill.
None of his family have ever experienced any mental trouble, and his friends were greatly surprised at his mental condition. They hope he will speedily recover.
—There are in Illinois nine cities provided with the free-delivery service, an addition of two since the last report. They are Chicago, Bloomington, Decatur, Elgin, Galesburg, Peoria, Quincy, Rockford and Springfield. In Chicago there are 321 carriers in service, costing the department, including incidental expenses, $297,759.62, an average for each carrier of $928.22. The amount received from local postage was $452, 103.28, leaving to the department, after the payment of all expenses incurred on account of the free-delivery system, a surplus of $154,143.64. It is this surplus revenue in Chicago which overcomes the deficiency in the smaller cities, that places the free-delivery service in the state on more than a self-sustaining basis, and which justifies, in the interest of the growing and enterprising towns, the extension of the system.
—There was a little episode at the depot yesterday afternoon which wrought one good man's heart with woe, but caused everybody else to smile audibly. A happy couple, who but a few hours before had sworn to be man and wife, arrived to take the north-bound Central train. The blushing bride was soon comfortably seated while the happy bridegroom busied himself in having the baggage checked. While thus engaged the train pulled out, and just as it disappeared around the curve, the groom in his wedding togs and button-hole bouquet, rushed up the platform imploring a halt, without avail.
It was an apt but unkind illustration of "Good bye, My Lover, Good bye." He said, "I don't care for getting left, but then I am a married man, I am a married man." He took a train for the north a few hours later, his friends in the meantime consoling him the best they could. It was unkind to him for the train to pull out that way, but it was amusing to those who witnessed the circumstance.
The married man's life is full of woe, even from the beginning, "and the wind blows through his whiskers." Thanksgiving Dinner.
The ladies of the Christian church will give their annual Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday, at the tabernacle. All are invited. Dinner, 50c.
Supper served also. n24dwt —A Keokuk exchange contains the following notice of the funeral of Hattie Anderson, wife of William Anderson, the well-known Wabash engineer: "The funeral of Hattie Anderson, the little daughter of John and Minnie Anderson, who died at 8:10 o'clock last Wednesday morning, occurred this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the residence of the parents. There was a large attendance of sympathizing friends, and many were the lovely floral offerings which covered the beautiful white casket containing all that was mortal of the bright and innocent little child who has so often gladdened the hearts of its loving parents, and the features of which, even the death angel had not robbed of their beauty, looking, but for the pallor on the face, like one asleep. Among those who took a farewell view of the little one, was William Anderson, of St. Louis, brother of John. Words, of course, are inadequate to relieve the grief of the afflicted parents, and they can only be consoled in the thought that their precious darling has only preceded them to a land of eternal flowers, and will be saved from the trials and troubles of this earthly life." A Stolen Horse.

Ed Martin, the coal dealer, mourns the loss of his valuable little bay buggy horse. Between the hours of ten and eleven o'clock yesterday morning some thief entered the barn on North Morgan street, and made away with the animal. The thief or thieves simply untied the halter, and took nothing else. Other horses were left undisturbed. The fact that the animal was missing was not discovered until last evening, when vigorous efforts for its recovery were at once commenced. The officers were notified and other measures taken. There is no clue to the thieves, although it is supposed that the guilty parties are a band of people who come under the head of gypsies. Such a party is said to be camped a few miles north of town.
Freeman Bros.
Are not selling out to leave the town, but intend to remain in Decatur. It is to your advantage to buy of them.
Anything that doesn't suit can be exchanged or the money refunded. They do not charge for fastening buttons on the shoes they sell. Just receive it, Ladies spring-heel shoes.
We will not be undersold by any shoe house in town. Our goods were bought for cash, and we have no interest to pay. Please call and examine our stock before purchasing. n25tf.
Stolen
A bay horse was taken from the barn of Ed L. Martin to-day by some unknown parties between 10 and 11 o'clock. Any information leading to the recovery of the horse will be suitably rewarded.
Ed L. MARTIN.
Decatur, Nov. 24, 1885.

Married.
At St. Patrick's church, in this city, by Rev. Father Mackin, Patrick Keating, of Wapella, to Miss Mary Kearney, of Natick. Mr. Keating is a prominent young farmer and his wife is a niece of John Henebry, of Niantic, well and favorably known in this city. The Review extends the heartiest congratulations.
Donation.
The friends of Rev. and Mrs.
Bradshaw are requested to meet at their residence on Cemetery street on the evening of Thanksgiving, for the purpose of a house-warming.
Everything useful in a family will be thankfully received. Mrs. Bradshaw is an invalid for life, and is helpless.
He that giveth to the poor, lendeth to the Lord."
Fun Ahead.
Who can sell goods the cheapest is the question? We do not intend going out of business, neither do we intend embarking in the wholesale trade. But at the same time we will not be undersold by our competitors who "claim" so much. The season is late and we have a very large stock of fall boots and shoes which we must reduce. Until January 1st we will sell at very low prices any goods in the store. Remember the reliable and popular firm of J. H. BLACK & SON.
